

United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

---

No. 17-5107*September Term, 2017*1:16-cv-00024-BAH*Filed On: April 4, 2018

Kumar Naharaja,

Appellant

v.

National Labor Relations Board, et al.,

Appellees

BEFORE: Henderson and Katsas, Circuit Judges, and Ginsburg, Senior Circuit Judge

ORDER

Upon consideration of the motions to hold in abeyance filed on January 1, 2018, and February 28, 2018, the response thereto, and the entire record on appeal, it is

ORDERED that the motion filed on January 1, 2018, be dismissed as moot, and the motion filed on February 28, 2018, be denied. It is FURTHER ORDERED that this appeal be dismissed for lack of prosecution. See D.C. Cir. Rule 38. Appellant has already received three extensions of time in which to file either the docketing fee or a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and he has still failed to do so. In each of this court's previous orders, the court advised appellant that failure to meet the extended deadline would result in dismissal of the appeal for failure to prosecute. The latest motion to hold the appeal in abeyance was filed after appellant missed the deadline of February 21, 2018, which he himself had requested. Because appellant has repeatedly failed to comply with deadlines established by this court and has not provided an adequate explanation for his failure to do so, dismissal is appropriate. See Barber v. Am. Sec. Bank, 841 F.2d 1159, 1162 (D.C. Cir. 1988) (per curiam).

Pursuant to D.C. Circuit Rule 36, this disposition will not be published. The Clerk is directed to withhold issuance of the mandate herein until seven days after resolution
